

Colorado's Old Town... Shop, Dine, Discover

120+ Specialty Shops, Galleries, Restaurants & More

TERRITORY DAYS

Presented by

Old Colorado City Associates, Ltd. with Management by Pro Promotions, Inc.

P.O. Box 1153, Monument, CO 80132 * phone & fax 719.487.8005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

- WHAT: 35th Annual Territory Days
- WHEN: Memorial Day Weekend - May 29 thru 31, 2010
Sat. & Sun. 10am to 7pm, Mon. 10 am to 5pm
- WHERE: Old Colorado City, 23rd thru 27th Streets, Colorado Springs, CO
- CONTACT: Jim or Pam Wear 719-487-8005
- ATTACHMENTS: Entertainment line-up & Schedule of Events

(Colorado Springs, CO – May 11, 2010) Pro Promotions, Inc, and the Old Colorado City Associates Ltd, are proud to announce the return of Colorado Springs largest and longest standing street festival, the 35th annual Territory Days celebration Memorial Day weekend in Old Colorado City.

Attendees are encouraged to ride the FREE SHUTTLE from Coronado High School running every 15 minutes to avoid parking hassles.

There will be a FREE bicycle valet courtesy of CS West Bikes as well!

Features

The historic district on Colorado Avenue between 23rd Street and 27th Street will come alive with live music, food, fun and entertainment for the entire family. One of the state's largest craft vendor fairs is highlighted with features including pony rides, kids play area, petting zoo, mechanical bull, Cowboy Church Service, toy train rides, gold panning, wild west gunfight reenactments, live blacksmithing, period costumed characters, live birds of prey, native American dancers, quick draw competition, and two beer gardens with live music running all three days.

Live Music

The Territory Days free concert series is headlined this year by country music recording artists Steve Azar, Bomshel, and The Jane Dear Girls. Other acts include award winning Native American musician Arvel Bird, Brothers of the Son, the Jake Loggins Band, Inka Gold, 6035, The Black Rose Band, Sandy Wells, N Tha Mixx, Gypsy Smoke, Skanson and Hansen, the Cari Dell Trio, Zen Theory, and the Lethal Lisa McCall Band.

History

Territory Days was created in 1976, coinciding with Colorado's Centennial and America's Bicentennial celebrations, to commemorate Old Colorado City being the first territorial capital of the region. It began as a small neighborhood craft fair and has grown into a three-day street festival, which today hosts 200 food, craft, and commercial vendors and has approximately 140,000 attendees from across the country.

Memorial Day Observance

In observance of the "National Moment of Remembrance", Please join us in Bancroft Park on Monday, May 31st at 3 p.m. as we gather to remember our nation's fallen Heroes, and pay respect to those who have sacrificed their Freedom and their Lives so that we may enjoy our own as citizens of the GREATEST Country in the World.

For more information on the 2010 Territory Days, please contact Jim or Pam Wear at 719-487-8005 or go online at www.ShopOldColoradoCity.com.

Trendy boutiques, classic jewelry, gourmet restaurants, exquisite art and a lovely, tree-lined avenue invite the children and their families to come and see what Old Colorado City has to offer visitors and guests.

###